likes and recommends
the movie.

TO SHOW ADDITION 'NOT ONLY....BUT ALSO'

Not only Suda
but (also) her sister enjoys
the party.

Not only did she forget my birthday, but she also didn't even apologise for forgetting it.

Jane not only swims in the morning but also in the evening.

TO SHOW ADDITION

intelligent and
it is friendly,
as well.

I'll have steak
and salad, as well.

You love me and I love you, too!

TO SHOW ADDITION

'Neither....nor'

Neither I nor Somsak can swim.

They neither sang nor danced.

- She neither phoned nor texted
me a message.
- She didn't phone
nor did she text a message.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

'...Though, Although,
Even though, Even if...'

Though I
study hard, I almost fail the exam.

Although we spent our times
to practice
football, we lost
this competition.

Even if I have to finish my task before noon, I cannot make it.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

'In spite of, Despite + N.'

Despite her beauty, May has no boyfriend.

In spite of his efforts, Tom could not pass the exam.

In spite of sickness, I will drink cold drink.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

'In spite of the fact that...
Despite of the fact that...'

In spite of the fact that she
is beautiful,
May has no
boyfriend.

Despite of the fact that Tom makes an efforts, he could not pass the exam.

In spite of the fact that I am sick, I will drink cold drink.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

'but, while, whereas..'

milk every morning, but
her sister doesn't.

Tigers have stripy fur whereas leopards have spots.

While he may be rich, he certainly isn't handsome.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

'nevertheless, however, still, yet on the contrary, on the other hand'

The tornado destroyed the entire town.
However, no one was killed.

Tom said his English is terrible.
Nevertheless, he got a perfect score on his English test.

Joseph said that his father is rich.
Still, he should get a job and learn to be responsible with money.

TO SHOW CONTRAST

however + adj. + clause

However
hungry I am, I
'm never able to finish a whole pizza.

However polite
he's said to be,
he cursed at me
for five minutes!

However
honest you
said to be, you always cheat
on me!

TO SHOW CONTRAST

adj. + as+ clause

Hungry as I am, I 'm never able to finish
a whole pizza.

Polite as he's said to be, he cursed at me for five minutes !

Honest as
you said to be,
you always
cheat on me!

TO SHOW RESULT

SO, THUS, HENCE, THEREFORE,
ACCORDINGLY, CONSEQUENTLY

I was late, so I went home.

I overslept;
consequently
I didn't have breakfast.

Economic is bad;
accordingly
we have to economize.

TO SHOW RESULT

SO, THUS, HENCE, THEREFORE,
ACCORDINGLY, CONSEQUENTLY

economize.

TO SHOW CAUSE AND REASON

BECAUSE, SINCE, FOR, AS, NOW THAT

We stayed home
because it
rained.

He felt no fear,
for he was a brave man.

Since we don't have much time, we must finish it today.

TO SHOW PURPOSE

that / so that / in order that /
for the purpose that

He left early
so that he could get there on time.

He left early
so as to get
there on time.

He ran away lest
he should be seen.

He told the truth
lest he should be punished.
